

MINUTES OF ELECTIONS

On December 6, 2016, the period of official nominations for positions on the various FSSS committees was opened at 3:13 p.m.

STATUS OF WOMEN COMMITTEE (5 POSITIONS):

Nominations of candidates:

- Mona Edma nominated Johanne Toupin, who agreed to stand for election
- Jean Mercier nominated Mélanie Bouchard, who agreed to stand for election
- Lucie Longchamps nominated Marilyn Potvin, who agreed to stand for election
- Marie-Hélène Plourde nominated Céline Pageau, who agreed to stand for election
- Judith Huot nominated France Lachapelle, who agreed to stand for election
- Barbara Poirier nominated Marie-Hélène Plourde, who agreed to stand for election
- Dany Lacasse nominated Nadine Lavoie, who agreed to stand for election

There was an election for the five positions on the Status of Women Committee. Johanne Toupin, Mélanie Bouchard, Marilyn Potvin, Marie-Hélène Plourde and Nadine Lavoie were elected.

LGBT COMMITTEE (5 POSITIONS):

Nominations of candidates:

- Marjolaine Aubé nominated Jonathan Grenier, who agreed to stand for election
- Gisèle Charette nominated Donald Picotte, who agreed to stand for election
- Nancy Cartier nominated Martin Delcourt, who agreed to stand for election
- Carolyne Lambert nominated Karl Bissonnette, who agreed to stand for election
- France Lachapelle nominated Samuel Desbiens, who agreed to stand for election

The candidates were all elected by acclamation.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH AND SAFETY COMMITTEE (5 POSITIONS):

Nominations of candidates:

- Natalie Dupéré nominated Louise Gauthier, who agreed to stand for election
- Luc Bastien nominated Richard Després, who agreed to stand for election

- Éric Nault nominated Steve Bouchard, who agreed to stand for election
- Marilyn Potvin nominated Éric Castonguay, who agreed to stand for election
- Guy Rousseau nominated Thérèse Martin, who agreed to stand for election

The candidates were all elected by acclamation.

YOUTH COMMITTEE (5 POSITIONS):

Nominations of candidates:

- Yanick Pinard nominated Steve Garceau, who agreed to stand for election
- Anne-Marie Miller nominated Daphnay Mondelus, who agreed to stand for election
- André Benoit nominated Guillaume Charette, who agreed to stand for election
- Carole Leroux nominated Sarah Examé, who agreed to stand for election
- Luc Bastien nominated Julie Perron-Hamilton, who agreed to stand for election
- Vicky Ouellet nominated Amélie Lessard, who agreed to stand for election
- Carrie Mousseault nominated Chatelle Devost, who agreed to stand for election
- Luc Faucher nominated Cloé Turgeon, who agreed to stand for election.

There was an election for the five positions on the Youth Committee.

Steve Garceau, Daphnay Mondelus, Guillaume Charette, Sarah Examé and Julie Perron-Hamilton were elected.

INSURANCE COMMITTEE (5 POSITIONS):

Nominations of candidates:

- Michel Grégoire nominated Claire Ringuette as representative for Class 1, and she agreed to stand for election
- Sylvie Théoret nominated Marie-Josée Hamelin as representative for Class 2, and she agreed to stand for election
- Louise Gauthier nominated Guillaume Wilson-Patry as representative for Class 2, and he agreed to stand for election
- Gilles Lamontagne nominated Jocelyn Gauvin as representative for Class 3, and he agreed to stand for election
- Yves Leclerc nominated Kim Bayer as representative for Class 4, who agreed to stand for election
- Julie Roch nominated Karine Morisseau as representative for the private sectors, and she agreed to stand for election

There was an election for the position of representative for Class 2. Marie-Josée Hamelin was elected.

The other candidates were all elected by acclamation.

FINANCIAL OVERSIGHT COMMITTEE3 POSITIONS):

Nominations of candidates:

- Steven Fleurent nominated Gilles Dubois, who agreed to stand for election
- Réjean Gauvreau nominated Denis Beaudin, who agreed to stand for election
- Nathalie Daigle nominated Martin Campagnat, who agreed to stand for election
- Manon Tremblay nominated Hélène Brassard, who agreed to stand for election

There was an election for the three positions on the Financial Oversight Committee. Gilles Dubois, Denis Beaudin and Martin Campagnat were elected.

Motion to ratify

??

Destruction of ballots

Moved by Mario Harvey, seconded by Louise Filion, that the ballots be destroyed.

Carried

LORAINÉ DUGAS,
Election president

CHANTAL LAURIN,
Election secretary